Hi Jessica and Laura,

Great to hear back from you!

We don't have to try to set anything up for today, but if you are interested in the program or have any questions, we can schedule something for next week, depending on your availability.

I'd be happy to do a conference call with you both or just one of you, whichever is easiest for you.

Have a good one,

Hello again Jessica,

This is Chris Wibbe from HubShout following up on my email from a few days ago to see if you might have time to speak to me about the challenges local community groups face.

Hi Jessica,

My name is Chris Wibbe. I am a Vice President at HubShout.com. HubShout is an internet content marketing company with a passion for giving back. Part of HubShout's company mission is helping small business and local communities. Recently I convinced the President and CEO to dedicate a percentage of our profits to helping local community groups like yours.

I am wondering if you have time to speak to me about your association, what your challenges are, and where we might be able to help? I would really appreciate a response. I am not selling anything, this is a legitimate request in an attempt to help where we can.

I hope to hear from you. Thanks!
